Government committees – a number of committees exist to help government do its job effectively

Agenda and Priorities Committee – coordinates the long-range, high level, strategic activities of government. It reviews major policy decisions that are required.

Treasury Board – is a legislated committee. Its role as set out in the Financial Administration Act, is to

- Formulate general management policies relating to the business and affairs of Crown and Provincial agencies, and
- Perform any act is considers necessary to ensure that those policies are carried out

Cabinet Policy Committees – are integral parts of the government decisions making process. Their role s and responsibilities include the following:

- Review and make recommendations on policies, programs and legislation,
- Hear public and private submissions pertaining to their areas
- Monitor existing programs, services and legislation and
- Review the budgetary implications of each proposal as well as implementation and communications strategies

There are five Cabinet Policy Committees focusing on different strategic areas:

- Community services
- Economy
- Health
- Public safety and services
- Resources and the environment
